

DVB research video – November 2014

Wouter Radstake
on Rail freight development –
Australia

Rail freight development – Australia

---

- Strong demand for grain transport
- Slower growth in iron ore and coal business
- New built locomotive prices decreased significantly
- Carbon tax has been abolished (more level playing field with trucking now)

Australian locomotives deliveries

[Number of units]

Source: LTR / DVB Land Transport Research

